This company was formerly company C, 4th Battalion 25th Infantry and Company C, 2d (Brewer's) Battalion 25th Infantry.

The 8th Mississippi Cavalry, known as the "Black Horse" Cavalry, was organized in 1862. It was the only cavalry unit from Mississippi to fight in the Battle of Gettysburg. The unit was commanded by Colonel William H. T. Walker and was known for its bravery and fighting spirit. The 8th Mississippi Cavalry was one of the most effective cavalry units in the Confederate Army.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. A vertical margin line is present on the left side, creating a narrow left margin. The paper appears slightly aged or off-white. There are some faint dark spots and smudges scattered across the surface, particularly near the top and right edges. The overall appearance is that of a clean but slightly worn piece of stationery.

Dear Mrs. Watson:

Further reference is made to your letter of 15 January 1951, herewith returned.

The records show that W. C. Wallace, surname also found as Wallis, not found as William Clark Wallace, a farrier and private of Company K, 8th Regiment (Wade's) Confederate Cavalry also known as 2d Regiment Mississippi and Alabama Cavalry, Confederate States Army, enlisted 1 March 1862, at West Point, Georgia. The company muster roll for May and June 1863, shows him "Discharged by Surgeons Certificate & approved by Genl Bragg". Date of discharge not found of record.

Sincerely yours,

I certify that I have carefully examined R. H.
Ware ~~at~~ Lieut in Capt Wright's Company, and find him incapable of performing the duties of a Soldier, because of a Chronic Bronchitis and general feebleness from age he being fifty three years of age. I think exposure would only increase the distress and feebleness, he not having been able for the past six days to do but little duty as an Officer

With due deference to the opinion my superior I submit that said Order does not apply to my case I was not absent without leave I was then with my wife in my dungeon to remain at a private house and this permit
I showed to Lieut Col Foster Commanding the 1st Cavalry Return

In the next place I deny that the 11 of Order 96 can apply to a case where a soldier without leave becomes known to the authorities as having been absent from duty, since the object of that order as to apprehending persons who have been to call in all the officers & men then present and report apply to any officers except those then absent and the 11 of Order 96 is to order commences within twenty days
the 11 of Order 96 is to order commences within twenty days

I have the honor to respectfully ask through you of his Excellency the President. permission to raise a Cavalry Regiment in the County of Taladega Talapocca & Chambers State of Alabama
There are four companies already raised in the aforesaid County & I am satisfied the material is there to raise an excellent Regiment. I am thoroughly acquainted with the Country & people in the County named & have been strongly urged to make this application.
